LAUNCHING

Samuel Hahnemann's Applied Homeopathy (SHAH) and National Homeopathic Seminar

1. The Homeopathic Reset

Providing a credible pathway for homeopathic practitioners engaged in unauthorized allopathic practice to start or restart their homeopathic practice, while preventing such practices among students.

Speakers

Dr. Farokh Master
Bombay

Dr. Jawahar Shah
Bombay

Dr. Ajit Kulkarni
Pune

Dr. Bhaskar Bhatt
Ahmedabad

- How can you work towards developing your homeopathic practice while studying homeopathy or serving as a medical officer in allopathic hospitals?
- Ways to achieve early financial independence in a newly established homeopathic practice—before marriage, while managing family and financial responsibilities, and after marriage
- Managing common diseases seen in allopathic (GP) practice through homeopathy, while building a safe, legal, OPD-based homeopathic practice.
- Understanding the common and chronic conditions for which patients may be appropriately shifted to homeopathic care, especially when allopathy offers no permanent cure.
- Learning the gradual transformation from unauthorized allopathic practice to a legally safe, ethical, and independent homeopathic practice—while maintaining the mindset for quick and effective day-to-day prescribing

Each keynote speaker will share real-world clinical challenges, case experiences, and incisive insights to address the core issues faced by the focused group of homeopaths.
